

According to the local authorities, police exported 47 rifles, grenade and some papers from these two persons, which shows that these two are Pakistani.

According to local officials, the police, the two people, 47 rifles, a grenade and some documents, recovered that these two Pakistani.

Local officials say that the police recovered AK 47 rifles, granades and some documents from them which proved that they were from Pakistan.

According to local government police had recovered AK47 rifles, grenade an some papers from both persons. Which indicates that they were probably from Pakistan.

According to local government, police recovered AK-47 rifles, grenades, and documents from both persons indicating that they were likely from Pakistan.

According to local government the police recovered AK47 rifles, grenades, and papers from both persons which indicated that they were probably from Pakistan.

According to the local authorities, police exported 47 rifles, grenades, and some papers from these two persons, which show that these two are Pakistani.

According to the local government, police had recovered AK47 rifles, grenades and some papers from both persons, which indicates that they were probably from Pakistan.

Local officials say that police recovered AK 47 rifles, grenades and some documents from them, proving that they were from Pakistan.

Local officials state that the police recovered AK-47 rifles, granades, and some documents from them, which proved that they were from Pakistan.

According to the local authorities, police exported 47 rifles, grenade and some papers from these two persons, which shows that these two are Pakistani.

According to local officials, the police, the two people, 47 rifles, a grenade and some documents, recovered that these two Pakistani.

Local authorities have stated that the police confiscated 47 rifles, grenades and some documents from the combatants that showed proof they were Pakistani combatants.

Local officials say that the police recovered AK 47 rifles, granades, and some documents. These documents proved that the attackers were from Pakistan.