We understand this truth that both countries and the entire world can fight this imprecation, only when united.

we realize this reality that both the countries and the entire world could defeat terroism by joining hands we understand this reality that both countries and the whole world can only join hands to face this curse of terrorism.

fight this imprecation, only when united.

We realize the reality that both the countries and the entire world could defeat terrorism by joining hands.

We understand this truth that both countries and the entire world can fight this curse only when united.

We understand the truth that both countries and the entire world can fight this imprecation, only when united.

we realize the reality that both the countries and the entire world could defeat terroism by joining hands

We understand that both countries and the whole world can only join hands to face this curse of terrorism.

We understand the reality that both countries and the whole world must join hands to face this curse of terrorism.

We understand the reality that both countries, and the whole world can only join hands to face this curse of terrorism.